Deepening Creativity: Brainstorm

This month, the UX team, along with our agency partners are taking a course called Deepening Creativity. I am super excited about taking this time to step back and reflect on the creative process.

This week's content was about getting comfortable with making mistakes so that we can get the most creative ideas on the table and deliver the best value for our customers. To help with this, we did an activity called the Deepening Creativity Brainstorm ... see more
